An exhilarating, entertaining and enlightening journey down memory lane for Boomers and parents and children of Boomers. All your favorite oldies songs and some you haven't heard in a long time are there! Clever dialogue and interesting segways. You laugh out loud, feel like boogying with the actors and reexperience the highs and lows of the era. Talented live band, expressive actors. Great rendition of RESPECT by a voice you won't soon forget. There are no bad seats. They could use better signs or people to direct to the restrooms which are in another building. But the show itself, I highly recommend!

Top Useful Tips

Tips are provided by Goldstar members and American Coast Theater Company. Goldstar is not responsible for their content or accuracy.

DRESS

Dressy casual

Very casual in fact down right anything goes.

Casual would work - lots of very casual dressing

PARKING AND TRANSPORTATION

Plenty on campus

Heavy traffic if there is an event on the Fairgrounds.

Heavy traffic if there is an event on the fair.

FOOD AND DRINKS

Buy coffee, water,cookies at intermission

Coffee very weak and they ran out of cookies early

OTHER

Enter in on Newport, not Fair Drive. Too much traffic on Fair Drive for the OC Fair.

We used mapquest and took the toll road (73) and had no problem with fair traffic or directions

Rest rooms are a bit of a hike from the theater.
